

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example of the dangers of a
media controlled
solely by a small group of wealthy citizens. If the program "Stolen Honor" contained
valid information,
then it should
already have been
aired, so that there is ample time for public discussion of the issues involved.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. When only
large companies
control the airwaves, we are headed towards a
plutocracy, where information is controlled by the wealthy.

A democracy depends on a free press and
by extension, free
and open media.

Please either stop
Sinclair from airing
"Stolen Honor" or require them to air
a pro-Kerry program
after that, such a
"Going Upriver."
There should also be
opportunity for public input and discussion of both sides of the issues.
